

On behalf of the Government of Norway, we have the honour of drawing your attention to the 20th Annual Meeting of the Internet Governance Forum which will be convened in Norway from 23 to 27 June 2025.

Hosted by the Government of Norway, this hybrid UN event will bring together thousands of participants from different stakeholder groups and some of the most prominent individuals in the global digital discourse. It will address key aspects of digital public policy, including digital cooperation, sustainable development, and challenges like AI governance, disinformation, and cybercrime.

The Forum's week-long programme will feature a high-level track as well as other sessions. Overview of the program and sessions can be found here:
